USER GUIDE TO ONE UNIVERSAL SEARCH FOR ALL RESOURCES AT THE PNM LIBRARY, USING THE WORLDCAT DISCOVERY SERVICES

WorldCat® Discovery Services

DID YOU KNOW THAT IT ONLY TAKES YOU 1 SEARCH TO ALL OUR RESOURCES NOW?

Powered by OCLC WorldCat Discovery Services, searching through ALL our Library's resources from printed, e-Resources, digital, theses and many more takes only as much as A SINGLE SEARCH…IT SAVES YOU TIME!

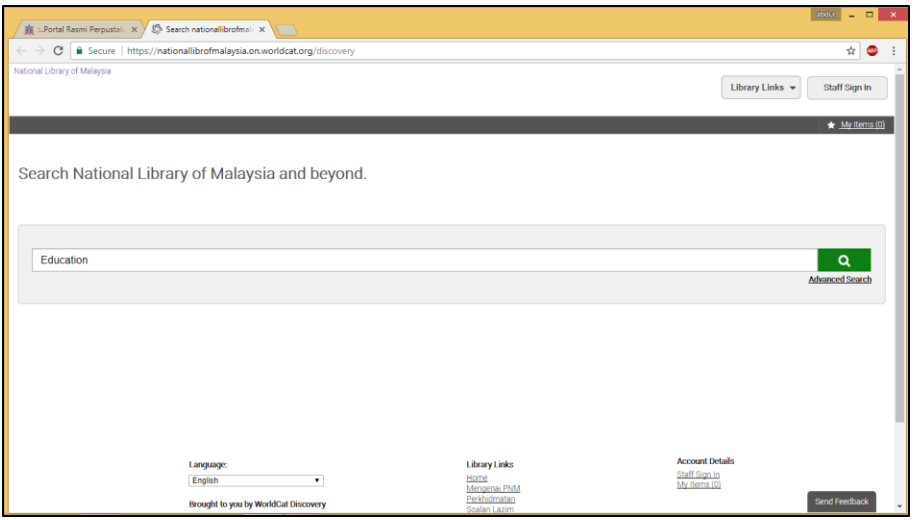
HERE'S HOW…

Step 1:
Launch our Library's Website Homepage (http://www.pnm.gov.my/)

Step 2:
Once our library's Homepage is open, you will find the "OCLC WorldCat" icon. Click on "OCLC WorldCat" icon.

See arrows on screenshots below.

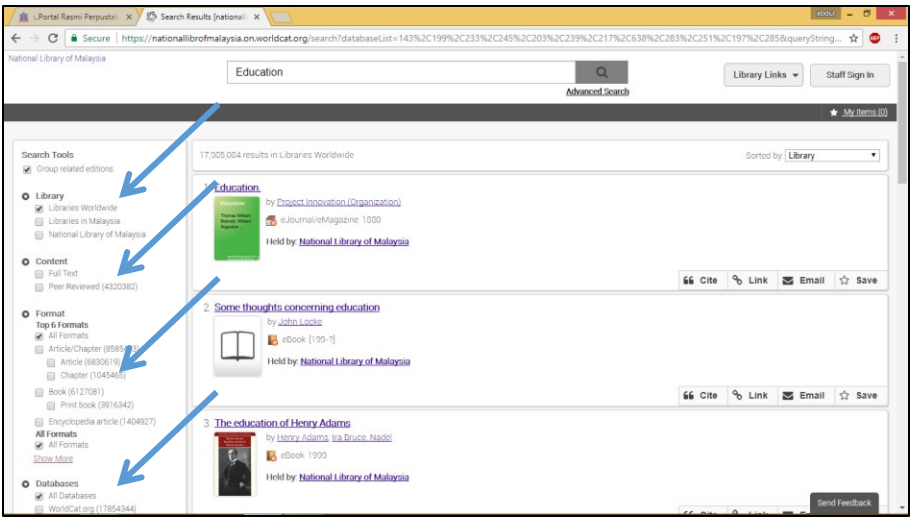
Once you clicked, it will show the WorldCat Discovery search platform as seen below. Enter your desired search, for example "Education".



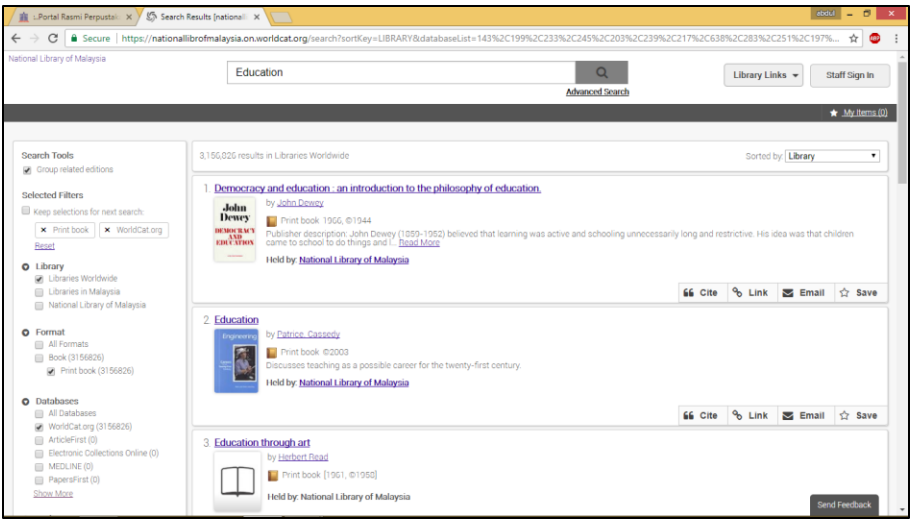
Step 3:
You will see the result page as shown below. Then you will need to:

Select "Libraries Worldwide" if you wish to expand your search result.
Select the Type of Format you desire, i.e. Articles, eBook, Large Print or Journals.
Select the Type of Content
Select the Database source, i.e. WorldCat.org

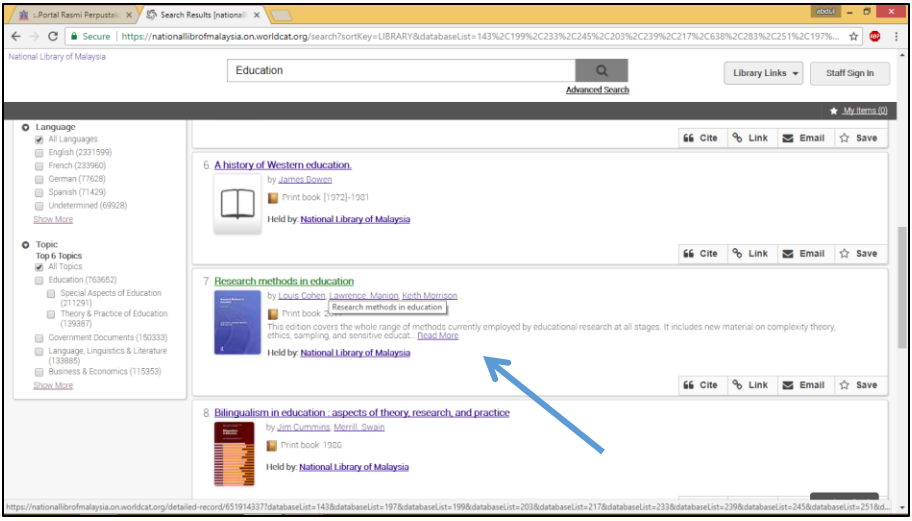
See arrows on screenshot below for your reference.



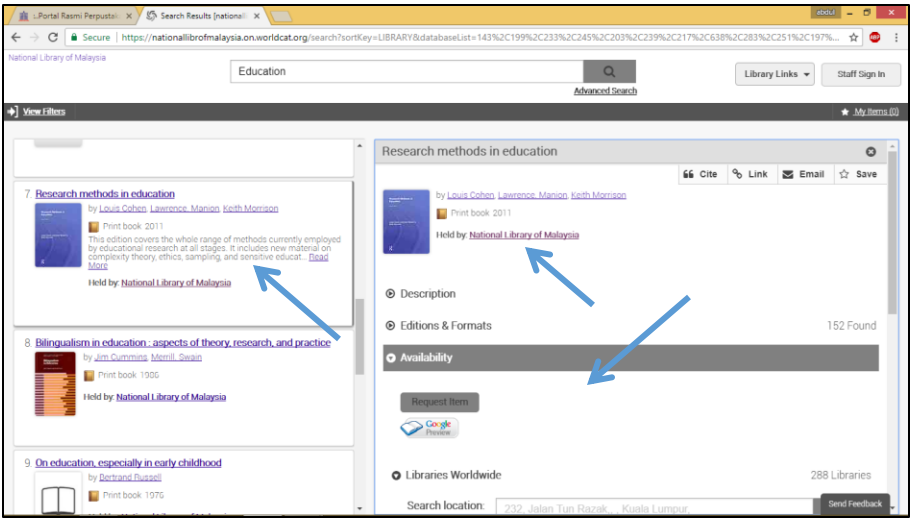
Showing you an example of result display page when you select: Libraries Worldwide, Print Book Format, and in WorldCat.org Database



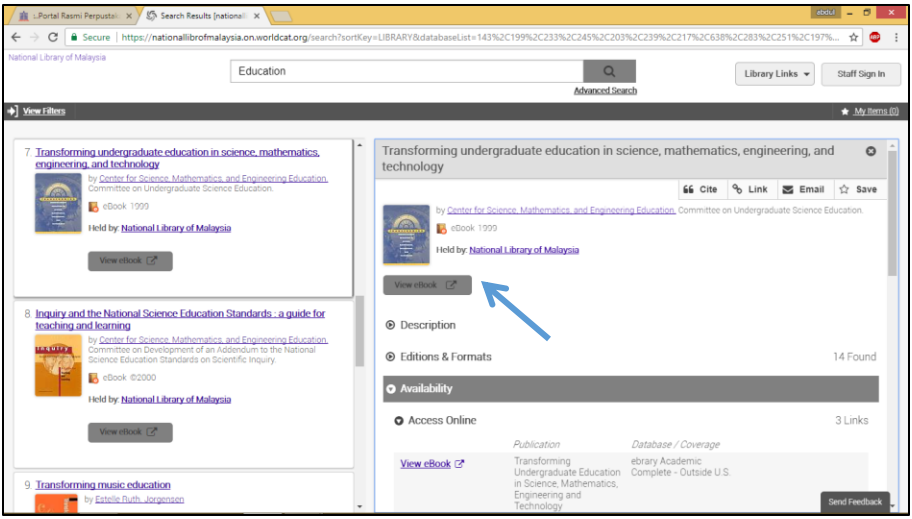
Select the Title you wish to have, for example result #7 as shown below:



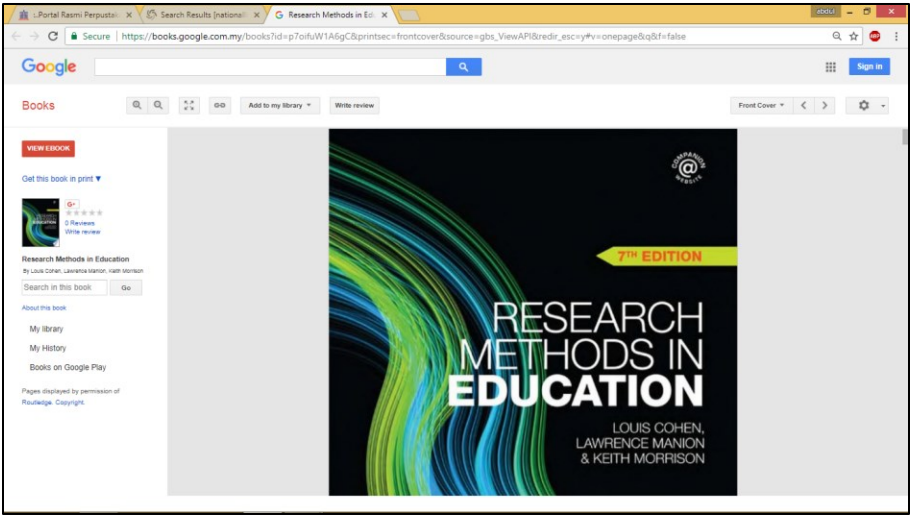
Step 4:
Shown below is the result page of your selection. On the left is the list of all titles' result, on the right is the selected title with description. Service will indicate whether or not it is available in your library. This page will show you, which other libraries hold the item if it is not available at PNM.



Step 5:
If the title is an ebook or ejournal, there will be an view ebook or view ejournal button appearing. Clicking the button will bring you to the full text if you are within the campus. You will be redirected to Ezyproxy login page if you are outside the campus.



Step 6:
If the title has a Google eBook edition, there will be a Google Preview button appearing. You may click the button to view the Google eBook for full text. However whether you can view the full text for the entire book or only certain chapters is at the digression of Google.



WorldCat Discovery Services deliver an interface that meets end user expectations, while maintaining the expert capabilities researchers and library staff require. The interface is device-independent and automatically adjusts for use across desktops, laptops, tablets and smartphones. There is no need for apps or different URLs for the interface to display appropriately.

To access your PNM WorldCat Discovery from your mobile device, just type https://nationallibrofmalaysia.on.worldcat.org at your device's browser.
